Class of 2009 Alumni Scholarships

Debbie Martin, '69

The Broughton Alumni Association honored two seniors at the Senior Assembly on Thursday, May 30, 2009.

The Alumni Scholarship is a four-year renewable award, given to a student who exemplifies leadership both at Broughton and throughout our community.

This year's recipient is William Heathcote. During William's four years at Broughton, he was engaged actively in lacrosse and football.

Outside of athletics, he was a member of the National Honor Society, Latin Honor Society, Service Club and Classical League. He was Master of Ceremonies at the 2009 Queen of Hearts Ball.

William achieved the rank of Eagle Scout during his senior year. His project for this accomplishment was to design and complete the installation of landscaping and seating in front of Holliday Gym. An Eagle Scout project can be done anywhere, but William chose Broughton as the site for his project, a testament to his love for the school and its future. William is attending UNC-Chapel Hill. He is interested in journalism, history, law and medicine. Congratulations to an outstanding gentleman.

The Mial Williamson Award, a one-year grant of $3,000, established by the family and classmates of Mial Williamson, was awarded this year to Molly Crenshaw. Molly was very active in athletics and other service areas during her four years at Broughton. She was on the JV basketball team and the varsity swim team. Her passion was volleyball. She was all-conference four years, MVP her junior and senior years and captain her senior year.

Off the playing field, Molly was instrumental in the Safe Club (Student Action for the Environment) where she worked with RDU to improve recycling methods at the airport. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Latin Honor Society, Service Club and a marshal. Molly is enrolled at Davidson College where she is interested in pursuing a degree in psychology and pre-med. Best of luck to Molly in her future.

The process of awarding scholarships is rewarding and encouraging to see the involvement of our students today, both in their school and their town. It makes contributing to the Alumni Association and the Scholarship Fund a very worthwhile cause.

New BHS Alumni Association web site launched

Your Alumni Association has had a web presence for some time now, but it has been under the umbrella of the Wake County School System. The School System has some rules and regulations which are too restrictive for our purposes, so we decided to go it alone and set up a new, separate and independent web site: www.broughtonalumni.com. (It is still possible to link to our new web site from the old address.)

The website has been under construction since last summer, and we have worked hard to make it relevant and user friendly. We are hopeful that it will become a valuable resource for our alumni. We have had several classes use it for their reunions this fall, and the initial feedback has been very favorable. Check it out. We welcome suggestions about how the site can be made even more beneficial.

While exploring this new website, I decided to "Google" "Broughton Alumni Association". The new site currently appears third in the list of results. I understand that it will appear higher in rank when there have been enough "hits"- another reason for you to go to the website. The Google search brought up the Wake County School site and one entitled www.alumniclass.com/broughton. This alumniclass.com site is a commercial site, and it is not affiliated with your official Alumni Association in any way. I am sure that there are other sites but they are all going to be "unofficial" and are probably commercial, without any benefit to your Association. For example, our new official website has a store and 20% of profit made from the sales of all items purchased from the store on the official Alumni Association website will go to your Alumni Association. None of the profits from the sale of items from the other sites go to the Alumni Association.

How to stay connected

Our Executive Director, Kathie Raymond, passed along the following true story to me recently which illustrates why we ask that you add us to your list of contacts to advise when you change your address.

There are two ladies who live several doors from each other in a retirement facility in Arizona. One of the ladies walked down the hallway to visit her friend. They started talking, and the second lady said that she had just received her newsletter from her old high school, and she told her friend how nice it was to keep up with her high school days. The second lady said that her high school also had an alumni association which published a newsletter as well. She went on to say that she no longer received it since she moved to the retirement home.

The conversation continued when the second lady said, "Oh, by the way, where were you from originally?" The response was, "Raleigh, North Carolina." The second lady said "RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, that is where I grew up! Where did you go to school?" "Needham Broughton High School" was the response.

These two ladies lived several doors apart from each other, almost a continent away from where they both grew up. Their graduating classes were several years apart, but they discovered they had a common bond. One had alerted the Alumni Association when she changed her address, and the other had not.

We have a database of almost 25,000 names, and it is a struggle to try to keep this as current as possible. If you move, please send us your new address or make sure that your class agent sends in address changes to the Alumni Association so the database can be updated. You can even do this online now at our new website.

See you online!

What Does YOUR Alumni Association Do?

Charles Johnson '72

The Class of 1984 contributed funds to establish an organization for alumni. Through their generosity and with the support and hard work of many others during the past 25 years, your Alumni Association has become THE voice for alumni striving to build relations with the school. Our philosophy is that together we can work to support our alma mater and its students. Toward this end, we award $11,000 annually in college scholarships and help fund school projects such as the Leadership Wall in the main hallway, the school's 75th birthday party, and the band's trip last year to California. We publish a bi-annual newsletter to keep people connected. We assist in planning and report on reunion activities. We recognize distinguished alumni, deceased classmates, and individuals who have been instrumental to Broughton's success. We maintain a website, archives, and database, and we arrange for the publication of an alumni directory. To better serve you, we employ an executive director and carefully monitor our investments and expenditures.

We have a vision, and we work to make that vision a reality. One day we hope to be able to announce that we can fund a self-sustaining scholarship endowment that will aid worthy Broughton students with college expenses. But this cannot happen without your continued, generous support. When you pay your yearly membership, won't you please add a few bucks for the scholarship fund?

Reunion Reflections

Class of 1954 - 55th Reunion

A jukebox playing our favorite high school days hits with Elvis looking on greeted the Class of '54 alums to start their 55th reunion. Fifty members strong, we came to the Sheraton Imperial on the weekend of July 24th from as far away as Ontario, Canada; Georgia, Texas, California, Tennessee, Vermont, Kentucky, Maryland and Florida.

Invited guest - guess who?

On Friday evening, along with registration, we had a get re-acquainted party complete with finger foods, wine, beer and lemonade. There were many shared memories of long-forgotten antics and events.

Barbara (Scott) Stearns-Cochran, Walton Dennis and wife, Mary

Saturday the day started with a luncheon during which we honored our teachers. George and Nell Kahdy and Polly Hendrix and her spouse were our guests, and we made them honorary members of our class.

George and Nell Kahdy, two of our teachers

Membership certificates were mailed later to eleven other teachers who were unable to attend. Lunch concluded with more visiting and sharing. To wrap up our Saturday, seventy-one of us enjoyed a cocktail hour and buffet dinner. We paused to remember those classmates we have lost over the years by reading their names from a Memory Board.

No big speeches interrupted lots of visiting, dancing, and promising to see one another at the next reunion.

Mary Katharine (Edmonds '56) Eberhart, Pete Eberhart, Sara (Gullette) Meekins, Ned Meekins

We did salute Frances Folk Coulter on her 50th wedding anniversary. To keep the memories fresh, we each received CDs of the '50s music that was playing on the jukebox all weekend.

Jim Johnson, Larry Ellis and wife, Helen

Sunday morning many of us gathered for breakfast and last recollections before wishing all a safe journey home.

Sally (Low) Williamson, Janie (Clement) Peebles

Class of 1959 - 50th Reunion

The Class of '59 reached a milestone in our journey together: we graduated from Needham B. Broughton High School fifty years ago! We celebrated this anniversary September 18 and 19 with several memorable events. On Friday, September 18, 192 classmates and spouses enjoyed a casual barbecue feast with a football theme. It was held at the North Hills Club. John Wardlaw began the night for us with a touching invocation.

Betty Poole Rose, Craig Springer, Donna Wilkerson Daughtry, Edie Olive Dickinson, Bill Simpson

Attendees were given a canvas bag with a purple and gold Caps emblem on it. The bag contained pens for signing, a 2-CD collection of the songs of our days, and a memory book titled Journeys. The book contained pictures and memorabilia that will help us reminisce about our early years growing up in Raleigh all the way through our graduation. It also provided personal profiles on 128 grads who generously shared their thoughts, experiences and pictures to help enrich their own stories.

Journeys is a record of our shared journey and our individual journeys. We thank all of our classmates who dug through dusty attics or basements or in the bottom of closets and boxes to find the great pictures and memorabilia they had saved for fifty years.

As you can imagine, there were lots of hugs, smiles and stories exchanged as the group mingled before and after the scrumptious buffet. There were even some brave souls who hit the dance floor for some spins.

On Saturday, September 19, fifty-five of the ladies attended a box lunch at Carol Williams Bilbro's home. The noise level there was dangerously high, sounding just like the Coke parties we used to have on our carefree high school Saturdays. The ladies enjoyed sitting out on Carol's beautiful patios, reveling in the renewal of valued friendships on a delightful fall day.

Amy Ballowe Faison and Betty Parker Savage

Saturday night was a festive but more formal affair at the new Renaissance Hotel in North Hills. 184 continued to chat and try to catch those they missed at the other events. The ambiance was elegant but friendly and the food delicious. Bugg Berryhill gave the invocation. Our deceased classmates were honored with a moving slideshow. They are all greatly missed. Smedes York led us in a champagne toast. Classmates were given a chance to share their thoughts on Broughton and their experiences. After dinner, the visiting continued and dancing commenced.

Joe Webb and Smedes York deep in conversation

Slowly and reluctantly our classmates began to leave, promising to keep in touch (made easier with the updated contact list in the back of the memory book) and to return for the next reunion. On their way out, each person was given a reproduction of the senior issue of our Hi-Times, generously printed and donated to us by The News and Observer.

From emails received by the committee, the Class of '59 enjoyed every aspect of this 50th reunion and is already anticipating the next one. Thank you to all who put it together and to all who attended. It was the best!

Jo Ann Rollins Jones '49

The Needham Broughton Class of 1949 held its 60th reunion celebration in Raleigh on September 25 and 26, 2009. Out of a graduating class of 180, almost 70 have passed away, but of the remaining 110, 61 attended from far and wide. Approximately 32 spouses and/or family members and special guests were also there.

Each class member was given a "goody bag" filled with interesting and useful items.

On Friday evening, 93 classmates, spouses, and friends gathered at the home of classmates, Frank and Julia Daniels, for cocktails and dinner in elegant surroundings. On Saturday, the festivities continued with lunch at the High Park Restaurant and Pub on Whitaker Mill Road with 60-70 people on hand. Judy Barrett, a teacher from our days at Broughton, attended as our special guest.

Classmates stayed at Homewood Suites, our "headquarters" hotel.

The reunion concluded with dinner at the Tavola Rosso Restaurant on Saturday evening where 42 people attended. This reunion was a grand weekend where old friendships were renewed and lots of tall tales were retold. We look forward to our next!

Diseases at Children's Hospital. Her research now focuses on prevention of mother to child transmissions of virus infections, mainly HIV. She and her husband have one child, Sam, born last February.

Sallie writes, "The Broughton High School Alumni Scholarship allowed me to attend a college that best suited my needs and interests, easing the financial aspects of my decision. Broughton biology teacher Jim Baker sparked my interest in science, the professors at Davidson urged me to make science a career, and a Davidson summer experience in a rural hospital in Zambia defined my career path into research of diseases prevalent in underdeveloped countries. Thanks to the Broughton Alumni Association for being an important part of all of this."

Alumni Decade Captains

To improve correspondence between class agents and alumni, the Alumni Association created "Decade Captains". For each 5 years, one captain is designated as liaison for those classes and the NBHS Alumni Association. For example, for classes graduating in years 1980 through 1984, there is one designated captain to contact for any changes in class agent representative, addresses, phone numbers and reunion information. For classes graduating in 1985 through 1989, there is another person designated as the captain for those years, and so on. The Decade Captains are also responsible for contacting the class agents in their group to remind them of their respective upcoming reunions.

The captains follow up with class agents or their reunion coordinator(s) and request they send in reunion news, summaries and pictures for publication in the Alumni Newsletter.

Below are the decade captains who have graciously volunteered to serve as liaisons to the Reunion Committee. Contact your decade captain if you are unable to contact your class agent. We are still searching for a decade captain for 2005-2009. Please contact Laura Boyce Isley '85 at (919) 782-3494 or lauraisley@msn.com.
